ingredient highlights

- Matcha Tea: Comes from the same plant as green tea, but is made from the entire leaf, so it packs in a more concentrated amount of antioxidants and beneficial plant compounds. Numerous studies have confirmed a variety of health benefits associated with matcha, ranging from enhancing weight loss to decreasing the risk of heart disease. Matcha has also been found to be liver-protective, and its caffeine and L-theanine content have been shown to improve several aspects of brain function.*
- MicrobiomeX®: A patented ingredient consisting of specific flavonoids that provide a unique dual effect on gut health. MicrobiomeX® has a direct effect through active metabolites, and an indirect anti-inflammatory effect, on the gut. Studies over the past few decades have found links between gut health and the immune system, mental health, autoimmune diseases, endocrine disorders, gastrointestinal disorders, cardiovascular disease, and more. MicrobiomeX® has been shown in studies to protect the gut barrier and leverage the gut microbiome's potential. This clinically proven ingredient leads to an improved SCFA (short-chain fatty acids) profile and lower gut inflammation.*
- Fulvic Mineral Concentrate: One of the best electrolytes known to man, Fulvic Acid has been found to be an essential component in the metabolic process of living cells. Our Fulvic Mineral Concentrate contains a remarkable array of 70+ trace minerals, 70+ electrolytes, antioxidants, amino acids, enzymes, and flavonoids.*

A naturally occurring organic compound, Fulvic Acid is created when beneficial microbes work on decomposing plants in soil that has adequate oxygen. It is one of the best natural electrolytes known to man, and has been found to be an essential component in the metabolic process of living cells.*

When fulvic acid converts inorganic metallic and rock-form minerals into a biologically active form, fulvic minerals are created. This process is millions of years old and began with the decay of huge prehistoric plants. Their decomposition deposited minerals into the soil, which fed the growth of new plants. For centuries this cycle has repeated itself, creating large deposits of humic and fulvic minerals preserved due to their specific geographic locations. Many of these prehistoric deposits are now being used to improve the health and overall wellness of modern man.*

Not yet very well known or fully understood by much of the scientific and medical community, fulvic and humic acids have not been able to be synthesized in a lab or clearly defined, due in large part to their extremely complex natural composition.*

Researchers have recently begun studying fulvic acid more closely, and have made some surprising discoveries. In addition to being an excellent natural electrolyte and essential to living cells in carrying on metabolic processes, fulvic acid is also a powerful antioxidant and has the unique ability to react with both negatively and positively charged unpaired electrons and render free radicals harmless. At the cellular level, fulvic acid can help correct cell imbalances, stimulate growth and repair, and support energy production.*

Containing a remarkable array of minerals, vitamins, amino acids, bio-chemicals, natural antibiotics and antivirals, antioxidants, enzymes, organic fungicides, and free-radical scavengers, our Fulvic Acid comes from one of the richest known sources of fulvic minerals in the world and is extracted using a cold process to preserve its nutrient-rich raw state.*
